

Empowering Women in Agriculture:

Lessons Learned from SAVE Project

This report presents lessons learned from the SAVE Project's efforts to empower women in agriculture through various training and capacity-building initiatives. The report provides insights into successful approaches for promoting gender equality and increasing women's participation in the agriculture sector, and includes case studies and best practices from the project.